Matthew 7:14

A Few Finders

Because strait is the gate, and narrow is the way, which leadeth unto life, and few there be that find it.

This came to mind some time ago, “The Truer, The Fewer”. I have never heard that before.

Scripture lets us know that there are only a few who find the way which leads to life. Why? This same verse answers that. “Because strait is the gate and narrow is the way." Strait means difficult (not straight as to mean in a direct line). This strait and narrow gate and way is not filled with constant ease, pleasantness, and luxuries. Therefore, it does not even attract most.

That's why there are FEW finders. Few reach, recognize, or appreciate the gate and the way which leads to life—real everlasting life.

The popular ideology today is that "all roads lead to God". It's the accepted way to parrot the various delusions that although everyone

is on a different path, all the paths lead to one God. It's actually praised and celebrated
to say Jesus, Buddha, Allah, Krishna, and others are really the same and they all
lead to the same God or ARE the same God.

If all paths led to God,
the entrance
would not be difficult,
the way
would not be narrow,
and there would be more than just a FEW finders.
